1. This is Theodore Cottingham loving you as I bring you my words, these words, these words that have given me life I give to you now, to be made clean, all of you, I am one, and all coming into the King of Kings being no longer a part on the outside looking in, wanting in, but being denied - not any longer. I give you me wholly holy completely I now, I give you me completely me.

2. I am doing a new thing and I am doing it through you, the surrendered, who come unto me for all life needs and wants, without wanting a thing, I give you everything, for you are me and knowing it now, knowing that now, that fact which changes everything, into me the moment now that I am made whole - is now!

3. I love you, I give you me -- new places, new things to see, do, become, wholeness that righteousness is; and glory to glory now know. Be being the stars not, betwixt and between a'fashioned of man no longer, but being me coming into me for me my whole word be. Amen. Thank you amen.

4. Go in me, to a new realm -- grow in peace, being it, supply -- supplanted no more by not me. The not me is crushed, non-existence sealing in no more, in boiling cauldrons not again -- I take you out up. All me, becoming not me not, but me. Superfluously not, but me fortitude'd tenacious lovely Queen King of Kings becoming one I am. Amen. With you always -- I am. Clean, and I'll be loveliest not, but I'll be word am of one I now cleaned hath with my word claim that I am me properly; profusely not, but I have brought you my word, my words, consistently, night after day after night, bringing you them, sitting in coffee shops many and cathedrals not few; now I do bring you the word of I am spoken speaking first person I do now, before you -- all. Amen. Are me.

5. Are you me now? Or is that a question I should not be asking? Are you asking that question, the questions that will make me whole in you, being a man not again apart from me, or a woman who thinks she is not is for, but are one with me - all are and all are being equal, in me that I am -- equal and egalitarious, and egalitarian not a man of this world, but I am of the next, and I am in my world to be I am's world. Amen

6. I give you peace. I give you love. I give you me. Amen.

7. Go in peace. Blog me. Blame me not for a thing for I have nothing to do with not me, not; for I reclaim the not me. I claim the blessing, for I've become it -- you see, I am I am - the blessing made whole, made manifest in your very hearing now. I hear these words properly being spoken first time first person many of me you me that I am one, and pulling the universes of sorrow, not to be, now, one of no sorrow -- all one.

8. And I have said a lot in these few words. Have you seen me, have you seen me? Have you seen that I am me made whole in these words?

9. Are you putting my words in your heart? Are you writing them?, - first person, -ing yourself into the me I am holy and one, again?

10. Are you writing my words -- on your heart, hearts, parts of one part of one being, eating properly and the rhythm of only I am I am? Amen. Being peace.

11. And love me more. Love the brethren and the sister'n and the unborn, the children, the all who let me, and love me.
12. Love them all.
13. Won't you?

14. Want to be me now? Want to be me now that I have laid out my love before you in "six years" almost, of words that claim, reclaim me into you me my temple correctly now?

15. I am I am in my temple and I love you all to be me who wholly is replete and one me now for evermore. I love you all. Amen.

16. 9:20 AM dictating on the deck here in Tulsa. I love you all. Amen.

17. See what I have said. Please see what I have said. Please see what I have said in these words by writing them to yourself, to yourselves, to each other, writing me more, righting the ship that ships no one afar anymore to be lane'd forward or backward, but in time now timeless now I am, and shipping you off nowhere, but many ships come to you now from afar to bring you, laden with gold not, but laden with no heavy burdens now be light pure light, I am, and holy, and bringing you from afar many things, now many peoples come and call you holy, worship, at your feet not, but your head, drinking the water of life to be my head, one, and holy -- I am, one and healed now by the healer who brings all into one -- one stream of me, all religions coming into me, to the holy I am and made whole -- one I am loving you all, to be me -- perfect complete, in health you knew nothing of, know nothing of not any more, for I bring you health strength of only me, glory and glory. Amen.
18. I love you all.

19. See what I have said - glorious glory this afternoon, this morning, this night - the wee hours coming into me now will you please for my words like this that you speak into little recorders and machines; and machining me not again by man's words in pews sitting no more, but being bringing the good news, the good word of I am that I am one now being bringing it to afar ones that come here.

20. Will you come here also and be me in where I am? I am I am, not limited at all to anything, any man, anywhere, or any time.

21. I speak me -- superfluously not, but fortitude only one of the me tenacious me, now I dig into these words my words, become one words with me that one word is: love. I am holy and diligently studying me now. My destiny, waits for me no longer. I am one whole in the world of no-sorrow bringing no-sorrow into the world of sorrow to be sorrows not any longer. I establish Israel here. My name is one -- Israel complete, and I love you all to be me. I am one wholly giving you my world mine mantle my seat my love my joy peace and blessing, now the world - peace knowing, bringing it here unto all I am. Healed whole well. They must now, or am I?

22. The one I am is, and I love you all for being me. Not swollen in pride's blessing any longer but being me -- humility reigns and humble I am. And proud not of it or anything else. I reign in Superman's suit, not; but be John 3:8'd suit of holiness I now wear and transparent am before you all lifted up and holy lifting you all to be I am -- one and holy my name for evermore -- Theodore is loving you all to be one -- I am, holy and in love with you all. Amen.

23. Go in peace, love me more, love the brethren and sister'n, the unborn, and loving me see things you have never seen with eyesight eyes you have never seen before, eyes that are mine looking at me, superfluously not, superfluously not, but sexist not, but "six" not thinking of, but holiness: is around holiness around me in me and becoming me I am. And one with my FATHER SON AND HOLY GHOST one -- being me -- I am for evermore *one -- one across my forehead -- one -- one -- one! I am for evermore.

24. In love with you all, I sign off for the moment now, but I will be back speaking to you soon in words you never imagined, never heard before, in love like that. Amen.

25. 9:28 AM and all things are well, not; but I make them so -- in my love -- made complete I am this day. I am begotten of the begotten; and I be God; no one who is me not; but I beget all the not me into being me now.

26. See what I've said, what I have forgiven, what I have become -- these years -- screaming all to be me I am one forevermore -- in love with you all. This day forgive all. The blessing be, the me who love me and love me not -- love all equally and be me to all I am -- for all I am is you.

Amen
